DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of claims 15-23, 25 and 26 in the reply filed on 2/14/2009 is acknowledged. Claim 24 has been rejoined as the combination linking claim 25 has been found to be allowable over the prior art (See MPEP section 809 for detailed explanation).

Claims 27-41 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 2/14/2009.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 15-26 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 10 of U.S. Patent No. 6,721,779. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because:

Claim 15 of the current application is directed towards a method which performs the same functions and obtains the same result as claim 10 of the '779 patent. Claims 16-23 are obvious variants that do render these claims patentably distinct from claim 10 of the '779 patent.

Claim 24 of the current application is directed towards a method that performs the same function in the same manner as the program in claim 11 of the '779 patent.

Claim 25 of the current application is directed towards a method that performs the same function in the same manner as the program in claim 13 of the '779 patent.

Claim 26 of the current application is directed towards a system that performs the same function in the same manner as the system in claim 1 of the '779 patent.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

> The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 24 recites the limitation "said code" in the last limitation of the claim. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

> Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 26 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 26 is a system comprised of elements which are disclosed as possibly being software. Because claim 26 is directed towards software per se it does not fit into any of the statutory categories of invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

> A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –
>
> (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 24 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Number 7,458,082 to Slaughter et al.

As to claim 24, Slaughter teaches a method of operating a computer connected to a wired computer network, comprising: implementing on the computer at least one transport protocol adapter with a logic to interface with a transport protocol, receiving at least one of message oriented middleware (MOM) command tokens and of MOM message tokens from an application running on a mobile wireless device serving as client, via said transport protocol adapter and using said transport protocol, sending MOM message tokens to a client via said transport protocol adapter and using said transport protocol, and exchanging MOM message tokens with a

MOM client implemented on a computer of said wired computer network, and said code comprising software code implemented to receive and send JMS (Java Message Service) MOM tokens (See Figure 34 and corresponding disclosure, the XML messages are the tokens).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 15-23, 25, and 26 are allowed over the prior art.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Claims 15, 25, and 26 are allowable over the prior art as the prior art was not found to teach or suggest the specifically claimed relationship between the client and message proxy claimed by the applicant including the specifically claimed topic and queue relationship and the forwarding feature of the last limitation of teach claim.

As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).
